

THE ATHLEADER PLAYBOOK

Getting Started

Set Up Your Season

Read this before Lesson 1. It takes about 10 minutes, and you only do it once.

M.V.P. Accelerator™

POWERED BY ATHLEADERSHIP ARENA™

Welcome, Athleader!

The document you are holding is not a workbook. It is your High-performance Playbook. It is the most critical piece of equipment you will use during your Championship Season in the M.V.P. Accelerator. This is your foundation for forever.

The videos provide the strategy and inspiration from me, but this Playbook is where you put in the work. It's where you'll build the "muscle memory" of an elite leader by integrating the elite mindset of athletes with the mastery of leadership into your daily actions. The "drills" within these pages are designed to move you from knowing to doing.

Your M.V.P. + V (mission, vision, purpose and values) is your foundation, authentically grounding your leadership identity. How you activate it in real time is from your Core 4: Agility, Resilience, Alignment and Wellbeing (A.R.A.W.). This is what distinguishes Athleadership as a philosophy and system rooted in neuroscience, performance psychology and enterprise application.

Use this space in this Playbook to reflect deeply, plan strategically, and commit to action. Right now, establish the time you will commit to make this a priority: block 60 minutes on your calendar each week (in one block or across multiple times) and schedule a meeting with yourself to ensure you don't allow anyone else to take this valuable time away from an investment in yourself. This is your journey. Own it.

You've got this!

Melissa Dawn Simkins
Founder, Athleadership, and Head Coach

Leadership Conditioning System: A.R.A.W. (Core 4)

Athleadership Arena is the first Leadership Performance System built like sport: conditioning character, mindset, and scaling measurable performance impact through Agility, Resilience, Alignment and Wellbeing.

Our proprietary system will condition your ability to lead through pressure and change with purpose.

Agility. My ability to adapt to change, pivot quickly, and make decisions under pressure.

Resilience. My ability to bounce back from setbacks, manage stress, and maintain a positive mindset.

Alignment. My ability to align my daily actions with my deeper purpose and values, and to communicate clearly with my team and Player-Coach.

Wellbeing. My ability to manage my energy, prioritize recovery, and sustain high performance without burnout.

GETTING STARTED

How your Playbook works

Each lesson has its own Playbook file. You'll find it on the lesson's Condition the reps screen, near the end of the lesson, and in the course's Resources list. The whole season is also available in one file, if you'd rather keep everything together. Pick one way and keep your answers in it.

Every lesson's pages follow the same order:

1. Pre-Game Huddle. The lesson's focus, its objectives, and where to start.
2. Video Debrief Zone. Space for what landed in the lesson videos.
3. A.R.A.W. Conditioning Drills. One core rep, marked "start here," and extra reps if you have time. Each one shows about how long it takes.
4. Locker Room Reflection. What you noticed, and the feedback you asked for.

Your season at a glance

Lesson	Your core rep	Core	All reps
1 Suit Up & Enter the Arena	1.1 Setting your "why"	10 min	20 min
2 Pre-Season Conditioning	2.1 Discover your core values	15 min	60 min
3 Game Plan, Define Your M.V.P.	3.1 Architect your purpose	20 min	65 min
4 Activate Your M.V.P.	4.1 The M.V.P. decision filter	15 min	55 min
5 Lead the 90-Day Way	5.2 Gap analysis and SMART goals	30 min	95 min
6 Final Whistle & Victory Lap	6.1 Your post-season review	20 min	70 min

About an hour a week: your lesson, then one core rep from your Playbook. Extra reps are there when you have more time.

Filling it in

- Type straight into the grey boxes, and tick the boxes that apply.
- Save the file to keep your answers. In a browser, use the download or save button. In Acrobat or Preview, use Save.
- Prefer paper? Print the pages and write by hand.
- Only you see what you write. Nothing in this file is sent anywhere.

Your 90-Day Way Scorecard is a separate file. You fill it in lesson by lesson and track your goals in it week by week. It's in the course's Resources list.

GETTING STARTED

Set up your season

Four things to do before Lesson 1. Tick each one as you finish it.

- [ ] Take your Benchmark Pre-Assessment. It takes about 10 minutes, in the course, and you take the same one at the end of your season.

- [ ] Save your Playbook somewhere you'll find it again: this file now, and each lesson's pages as you reach them.

- [ ] Your Starting Line meeting. A 30-minute conversation with your Player-Coach (manager or mentor) about what you're working toward. They set it up, and they have the agenda.

My Player-Coach: _____ Meeting date: _____

- [ ] Block about an hour a week: your lesson, then one core rep from your Playbook. Same time each week. Move it when you need to, as long as you keep it.

Day: _____ Time: _____

"My manager is not participating in this experience"

That's okay. Your Player-Coach does not have to be your direct manager. Depending on your role, you may have one manager, multiple managers, or no participating manager. You can choose a peer, mentor, or trusted colleague to support your journey. When you see "Player-Coach," think of the person you've chosen to support you. However, only company selected managers will have access to the manager track of the M.V.P. Accelerator.

The information contained herein and within M.V.P. Accelerator course is to be used for educational purposes only. Velvet Suite, Inc., shall not be liable for any damage or possible damage caused to you, your business, or career arising out of the use or inability to use the content contained herein. © Velvet Suite, Inc. 2025

THE ATHLEADER PLAYBOOK

Lesson 1

Suit Up & Enter the Arena

About 20 minutes of reps this week. Your core rep, Drill 1.1, takes about 10.

M.V.P. Accelerator™

POWERED BY ATHLEADERSHIP ARENA™

LESSON 1

Pre-Game Huddle: Your Focus for Lesson 1

Great leaders don't wait for change; they create it.

Primary A.R.A.W. Focus:

Alignment

Aligning with your personal goals, the vision for this experience, and your own "why."

Agility

Making the mental shift from "training" to active "conditioning."

Your Objectives for this Lesson:

- Understand the core philosophy of Athleadership and the structure of your "Championship Season."
- Set a powerful intention that will serve as your fuel for the season ahead.
- Establish your initial A.R.A.W. (Core 4) baseline to measure your growth.
- Make a firm commitment to yourself and your development.
- Commit the time on your calendar to invest in your conditioning experience.

START HERE

Drill 1.1: Setting Your "Why"

Your core rep this week, about 10 minutes.

Page 10 ›

Video Debrief Zone

Use this space to capture key ideas, “aha” moments, and powerful quotes from Melissa’s coaching in the Lesson 1 videos. What resonated most with you?

Key Idea 1 (Athleadership & A.R.A.W.):

Key Idea 2 (M.V.P. Blueprint & 90-Day Way):

A Powerful Quote That Stood Out:

LESSON 1 · ABOUT 20 MINUTES OF REPS THIS WEEK

A.R.A.W. Conditioning Drills

This is where you start putting in the reps.

Drill 1.1	CORE REP · START HERE Setting Your "Why" Alignment	10 min	Page 10 ›
Drill 1.2	EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME Your Initial A.R.A.W. Baseline Check All four	5 min	Page 11 ›
Drill 1.3	EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME The Athleader's Commitment Alignment	5 min	Page 12 ›

Fill it in on screen. Type straight into the grey boxes and tick the boxes that apply. Save the file to keep your answers.

Or on paper. Print the pages and write by hand.

Then get feedback. Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed.

Drill 1.1 Core rep · start here About 10 minutes

Setting Your “Why”

Your Championship Season Intention. In the video, Melissa challenged you to set the intention that will fuel your entire journey. This is the first and most critical step. A powerful “why” can get you through any “how.”

Your task is to set one clear professional goal and one clear personal goal for this season. Make note as you will come back to this as you draft your 90-day plan as well as assess your final progress at the end.

Start by picturing the end of this season. What’s the one change you most want to have made?

Professional Goal: What is the single most important professional outcome you want to achieve this season?

Personal Goal: What is the single most important personal outcome you want to achieve this season?

Your “Why”: Why are these transformations so important to you right now? What will achieving them unlock for you, and who else will benefit (your team, your family, your company)?

Your Core Intention

Now, distill this down into one powerful sentence for your M.V.P. Accelerator journey.

My Intention:

Drill 1.2 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 5 minutes

Your Initial A.R.A.W. Baseline Check

This isn't a test. It's your starting point. Be honest with yourself. On a scale of 1 (Needs Significant Conditioning) to 5 (Currently a Key Strength), rate your current capacity in each of the Core 4 leadership muscles.

You rated yourself on the Core 4 earlier in this lesson. Copy those ratings here, so your Playbook has them too.

Agility

My ability to adapt to change, pivot quickly, and make decisions under pressure:

○ 1 ○ 2 ○ 3 ○ 4 ○ 5

Resilience

My ability to bounce back from setbacks, manage stress, and maintain a positive mindset:

○ 1 ○ 2 ○ 3 ○ 4 ○ 5

Alignment

My ability to align my daily actions with my deeper purpose and values, and to communicate clearly with my team and Player-Coach:

○ 1 ○ 2 ○ 3 ○ 4 ○ 5

Wellbeing

My ability to manage my energy, prioritize recovery, and sustain high performance without burnout:

○ 1 ○ 2 ○ 3 ○ 4 ○ 5

1 = Needs Significant Conditioning · 5 = Currently a Key Strength. You'll rate yourself again in Lesson 6.

My notes:

Drill 1.3 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 5 minutes

The Athleader's Commitment

Champions are defined by their commitments. This is your contract with yourself.

I, _____

commit to this Championship Season. I will show up fully for myself, engage honestly with the material in this Playbook, and hold myself accountable for the growth I am here to achieve.

Right now, I will establish the time to make this a priority, block 60 minutes on my calendar each week, and schedule a meeting with myself to ensure I don't allow anyone else or anything else to take this valuable time away from an investment in myself. I will also share this commitment with my Player-Coach to foster accountability and support on my journey. I am ready to condition the champion within.

My weekly hour, day: _____ Time: _____

Name / Signature: _____ Date: _____

Your Player-Coach has the agenda and commitment sheet for your first meeting together.

Your Core Tool: The 90-Day Way Scorecard

Throughout this experience, you will use the 90-Day Way Scorecard as your primary tool for planning and tracking your progress. This is the system that turns your M.V.P. Blueprint into real-world results. It is a reusable, season-after-season system for continuous growth.

Your Task:

- [ ] Locate and download the 90-Day Way Scorecard from your course materials. It's in the Resources list.
- [ ] Familiarize yourself with the structure. Notice how it includes sections for your M.V.P. Blueprint, your high-level goals, and a review cadence for weekly, monthly, and even quarterly check-ins. This is an evergreen tool designed to serve you long after you complete this course.
- [ ] For now, your only task is to review the first page: when ready, fill in the M.V.P.+V (Mission, Vision, Purpose, and Values) that you will architect.

We will activate the rest of this Scorecard in later lessons as you begin to set your goals and execute your plan.

Get feedback

Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed: your Player-Coach, a peer, someone on your team.

Who I asked: _____

What they said, and what I'll keep doing:

> "Great leaders don't wait for change; they create it."

Back in the course: your Athleader Pro Huddle with Tracey Newell, then your Pulse Check.

THE ATHLEADER PLAYBOOK

Lesson 2

Pre-Season Conditioning

Inner Blueprint Discovery

About 60 minutes of reps this week. Your core rep, Drill 2.1, takes about 15.

M.V.P. Accelerator™

POWERED BY ATHLEADERSHIP ARENA™

LESSON 2

Pre-Game Huddle: Your Focus for Lesson 2

Welcome to your Pre-Season Conditioning. In the Arena, victory isn't just about what you do; it's about who you are. This lesson is your dedicated time to conduct a "scouting report" on yourself. The self-awareness you build here (understanding your values, strengths, energy, and key life moments) is the foundation for authentic and powerful leadership.

This is the discovery phase. Give yourself the space to be honest and insightful. The work you do here provides the "raw materials" you will use to architect your M.V.P. Blueprint in Lesson 3.

Primary A.R.A.W. Focus:

Wellbeing

Cultivating deep self-awareness is the first step to managing your energy and sustaining peak performance.

Resilience

Understanding your past challenges and successes builds the mental and emotional muscle to navigate future pressure.

Your Objectives for this Lesson:

- Identify 3-5 non-negotiable Core Values that act as your leadership compass.
- Distinguish between learned skills and true, energizing strengths.
- Conduct a personal Energy Audit to identify what fuels you and what drains you.
- Review your personal "Game Tape" to extract critical lessons from past experiences.

START HERE

Drill 2.1: Discover Your Core Values

Your core rep this week, about 15 minutes.

Page 18 ›

Video Debrief Zone

Use this space to capture key ideas, “aha” moments, and powerful quotes from Melissa’s coaching in the Lesson 2 videos. What resonated most with you?

Key Idea 1 (My Core Values):

Key Idea 2 (My Strengths & Energy):

Key Idea 3 (My ‘Game Tape’):

LESSON 2 · ABOUT 60 MINUTES OF REPS THIS WEEK

A.R.A.W. Conditioning Drills

This is where you start putting in the reps.

Drill 2.1
CORE REP · START HERE
Discover Your Core Values
Alignment
15 min
Page 18 ›

Drill 2.2
EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME
Identify Your Strengths
Wellbeing
15 min
Page 19 ›

Drill 2.3
EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME
Your Energy Audit
Wellbeing
15 min
Page 20 ›

Drill 2.4
EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME
Review Your "Game Tape"
Resilience
15 min
Page 21 ›

Fill it in on screen. Type straight into the grey boxes and tick the boxes that apply. Save the file to keep your answers.

Or on paper. Print the pages and write by hand.

Then get feedback. Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed.

Drill 2.1 | Core rep · start here | About 15 minutes

Discover Your Core Values

Your values are your personal "True North." They guide your decisions when the path forward is unclear. The goal here is not to create a long list, but to identify the 3-5 values that are absolutely essential to who you are.

Instructions: Review the list of values below. Tick all that resonate with you. Then, from your ticked list, narrow it down to the top 5 that you would follow at the expense of all others. Write those 5 in "My Core Values," and mark the three you'd hold even when it costs you.

Values List Sampler

- ☐ Accountability
- ☐ Achievement
- ☐ Adventure
- ☐ Alignment
- ☐ Authenticity
- ☐ Balance
- ☐ Belonging
- ☐ Boldness
- ☐ Challenge
- ☐ Community
- ☐ Compassion
- ☐ Competence
- ☐ Confidence
- ☐ Connection
- ☐ Contribution
- ☐ Courage
- ☐ Creativity
- ☐ Curiosity
- ☐ Discipline
- ☐ Empathy
- ☐ Excellence
- ☐ Fairness
- ☐ Faith
- ☐ Family
- ☐ Freedom
- ☐ Growth
- ☐ Harmony
- ☐ Honesty
- ☐ Humility
- ☐ Impact
- ☐ Innovation
- ☐ Integrity
- ☐ Joy
- ☐ Justice
- ☐ Kindness
- ☐ Knowledge
- ☐ Leadership
- ☐ Loyalty
- ☐ Mastery
- ☐ Openness
- ☐ Optimism
- ☐ Passion
- ☐ Patience
- ☐ Peace
- ☐ Perseverance
- ☐ Recognition
- ☐ Respect
- ☐ Responsibility
- ☐ Security
- ☐ Service
- ☐ Spirituality
- ☐ Stability
- ☐ Strength
- ☐ Success
- ☐ Teamwork
- ☐ Trust
- ☐ Truth
- ☐ Vision
- ☐ Wealth
- ☐ Wisdom

My Core Values:

1. _____ ☐ Top 3
2. _____ ☐ Top 3
3. _____ ☐ Top 3
4. _____ ☐ Top 3
5. _____ ☐ Top 3

My notes:

Drill 2.2 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 15 minutes

Identify Your Strengths

A strength isn't just something you're good at; it's an activity that energizes you. When you're operating from your strengths, you feel in a state of flow. Reflect on the following prompts to identify your natural advantages.

What activities make you lose track of time?

What kind of problems do you enjoy solving for others?

What are you doing when you feel most confident and effective?

What do people consistently compliment you on or come to you for help with?

After which activities do you feel more energized than when you started?

Drill 2.3 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 15 minutes

Your Energy Audit

Energy, not time, is your most valuable currency. Identifying your “drains” and “fuels” is the first step toward managing your energy for peak performance.

Use last week’s calendar, not an ideal week.

Identify Your Drains: List 3-5 people, tasks, or environments that consistently drain your energy.

» _____

» _____

» _____

» _____

» _____

Example

Weekly 2-hour status report meeting.

Identify Your Fuels: List 3-5 people, tasks, or environments that consistently energize you and fuel your passion.

» _____

» _____

» _____

» _____

» _____

Example

1-on-1 mentoring session with my direct report.

Alignment Summary Grid

Now, synthesize your discoveries from the drills above.

Element	Currently Aligned? (Y/N)	What’s Working?	What’s Missing or Misaligned?
My Core Values	○ Y ○ N
My Strengths	○ Y ○ N
My Energy	○ Y ○ N

Drill 2.4 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 15 minutes

Review Your “Game Tape”

Your past experiences hold the data for your future success. We look back not with judgment, but with the curious eyes of a Player-Coach.

Peak Performance Moment

Describe a specific time in your life or career when you were “in the zone” and performing at your absolute best. What was the situation? What were you doing? What made it a success? What strengths were you using?

Resilience Moment

Describe a time you faced a significant challenge or setback. How did you feel, and what actions did you take to navigate through it or bounce back? What did you learn about your resilience from this experience?

Change Navigation Reflection

Think of a recent change you navigated. What value or strength helped you? What blind spot did this situation reveal?

Locker Room Reflection

After completing the drills for this lesson, what is the single most important insight you've gained about your Inner Blueprint? How will you apply this insight in how you lead yourself, and others, in the next 30 days?

Think about a recent season of high change or transition (merger, reorg, personal loss, promotion, etc.). How did your values, energy, or strengths show up, or not? What would you do differently now using this Inner Blueprint?

Quick self-check

Just for you. Your Pulse Check, the one that tracks your season, is in the course.

On a scale of 1-10, how equipped do you feel to lead yourself through change after this reflection?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

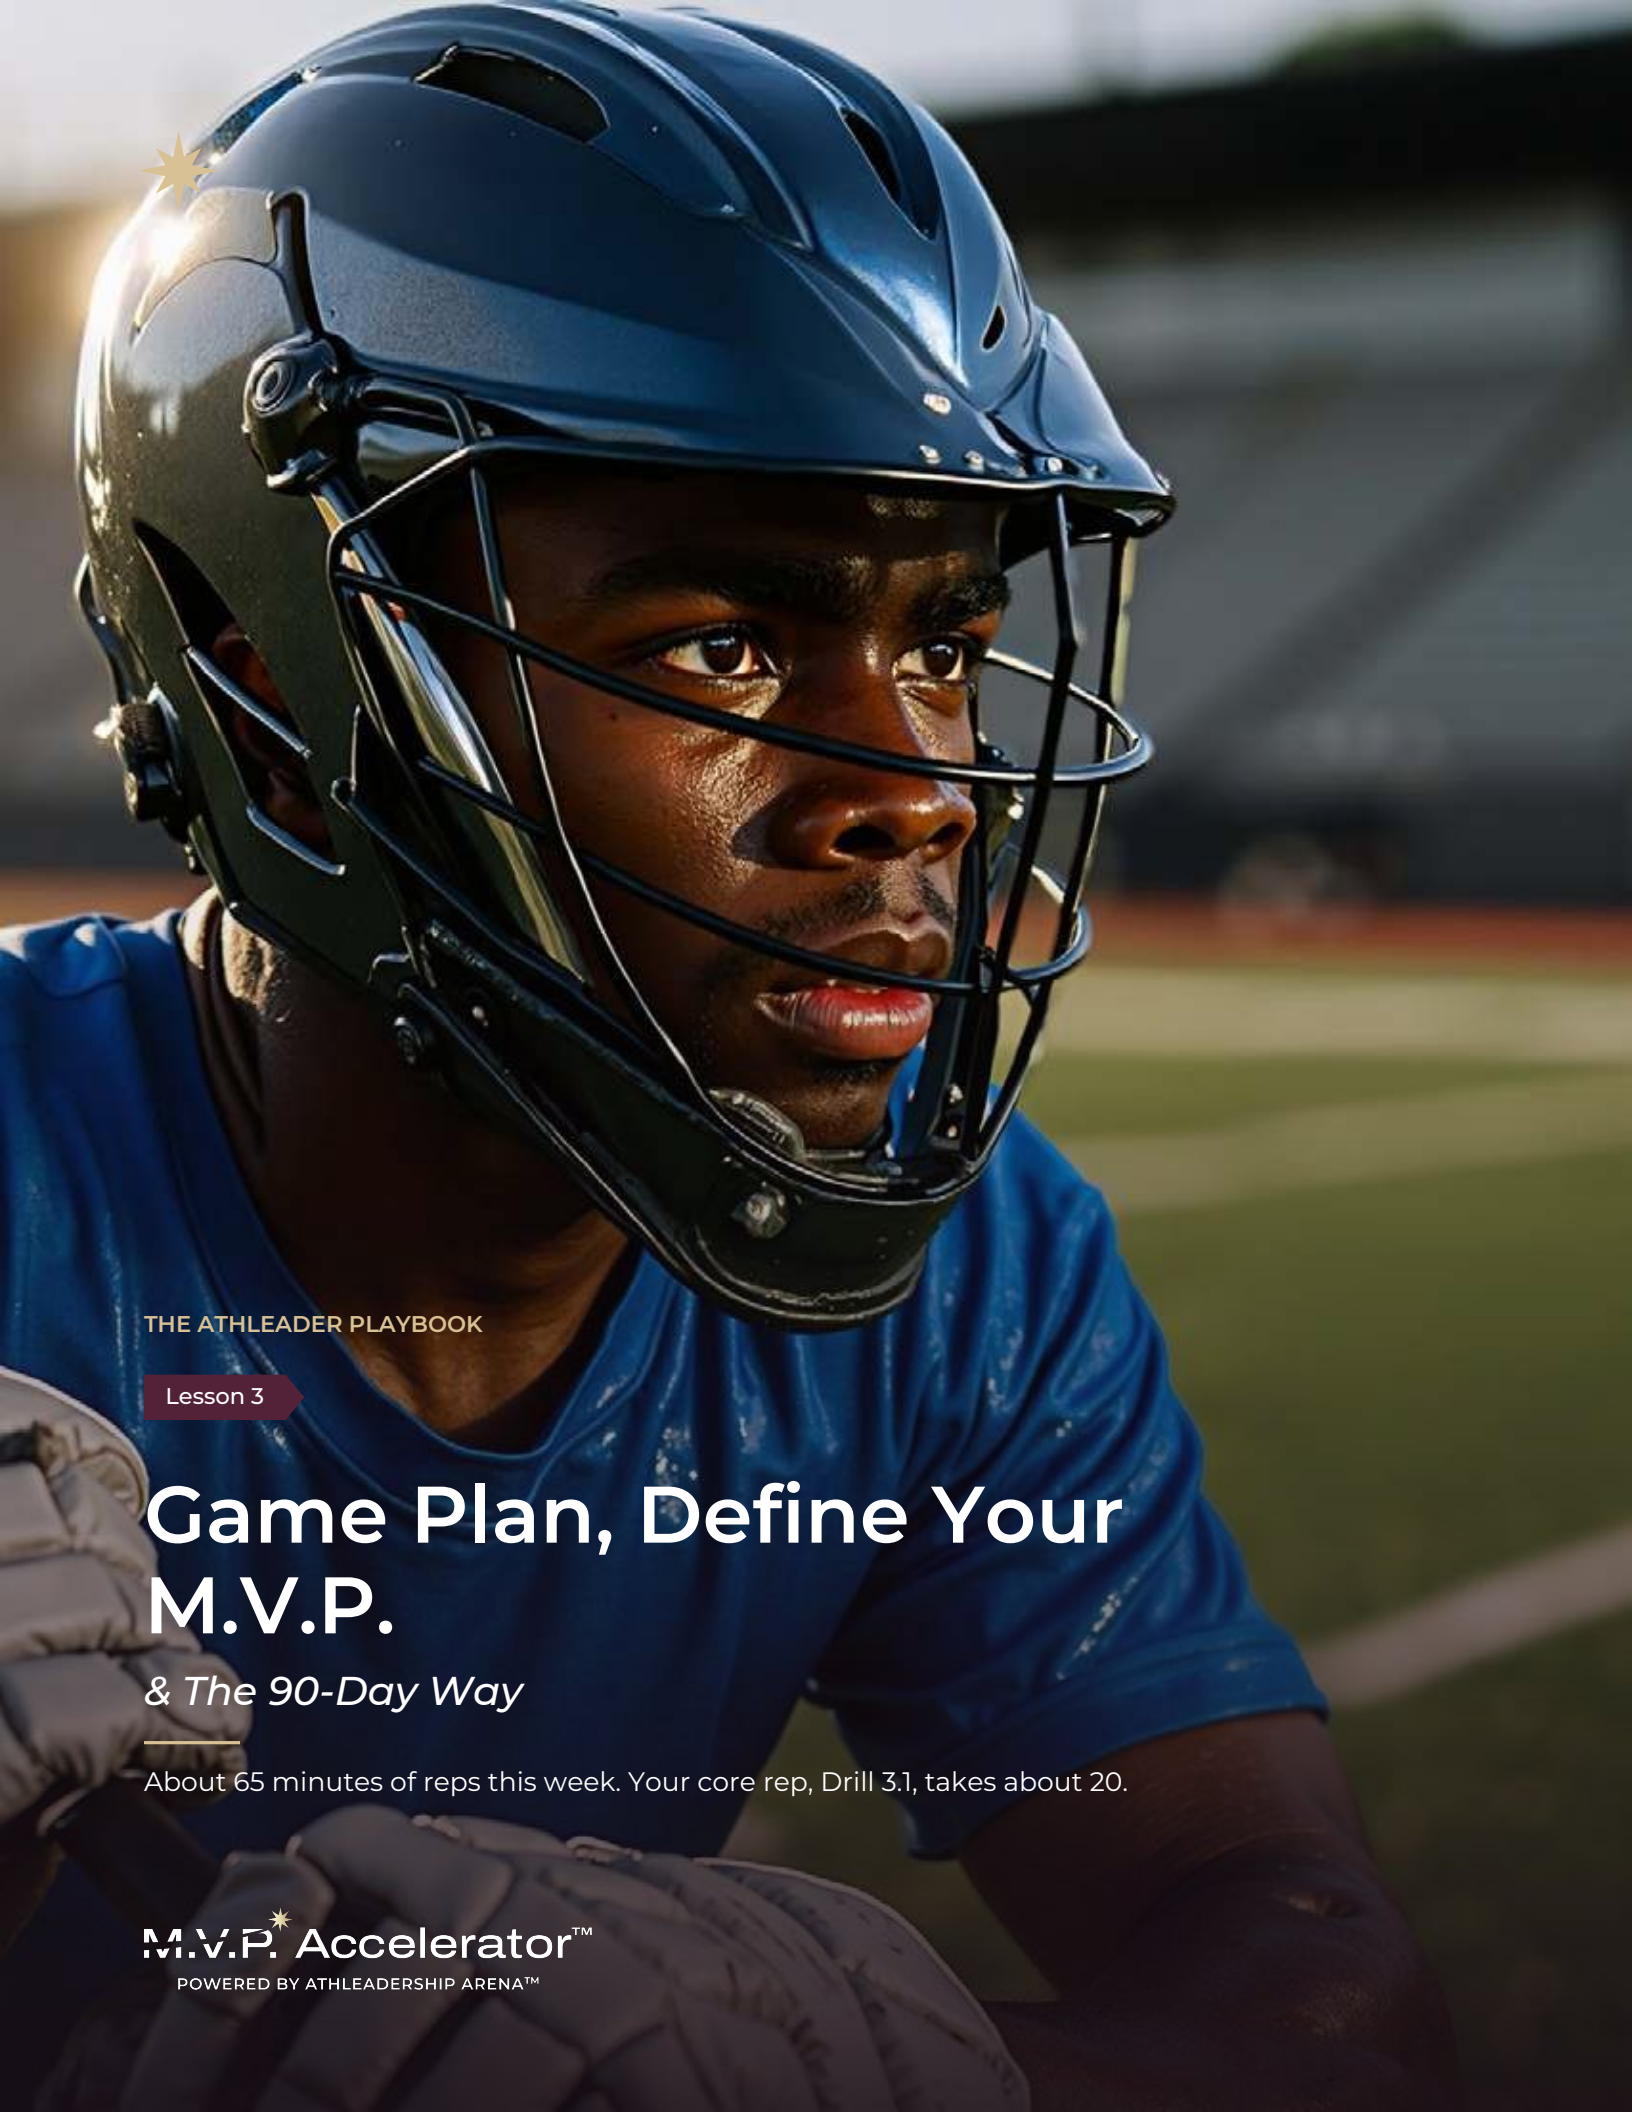

Get feedback

Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed: your Player-Coach, a peer, someone on your team.

Who I asked: _____

What they said, and what I'll keep doing:

Back in the course: your Athleader Pro Huddle with Dr. Michael Mannino, then your Pulse Check.

THE ATHLEADER PLAYBOOK

Lesson 3

Game Plan, Define Your M.V.P.

& The 90-Day Way

About 65 minutes of reps this week. Your core rep, Drill 3.1, takes about 20.

M.V.P. Accelerator™

POWERED BY ATHLEADERSHIP ARENA™

LESSON 3

Pre-Game Huddle: Your Focus for Lesson 3

Welcome to the architecture phase. In Lesson 2, you did the deep work of discovery and gathered the essential "raw materials" of your Inner Blueprint. Now, you will use those powerful insights to construct the single most important tool for your leadership journey: your M.V.P. Blueprint.

This is where your purpose gets a roadmap. But it's more than a personal map; it's an alignment tool that clarifies how you show up as a leader and builds a foundation of trust with your Player-Coach and your team. This lesson is challenging, but it is also where your vision starts to become real.

Choose progress over perfection. The goal is to get a powerful first draft down; you can, and should, refine it over time.

Primary A.R.A.W. Focus:

Alignment

Architecting a clear M.V.P. Blueprint that aligns your purpose, vision, and daily actions with the needs of your team and organization.

Agility

Creating a game plan that is both focused and flexible enough to adapt to real-world changes.

Your Objectives for this Lesson:

- Draft a compelling Purpose Statement (Your "Why").
- Draft a vivid Vision Statement (Your "Where").
- Draft an action-oriented Mission Statement (Your "How").
- Understand how your M.V.P. Blueprint creates clarity and sets expectations with your Player-Coach.
- Understand how your M.V.P. Blueprint serves as the foundation for setting A.R.A.W.-focused goals in the 90-Day Way Scorecard.

START HERE

Drill 3.1: Architect Your Purpose Statement

Your core rep this week, about 20 minutes.

Page 27 ›

Purpose isn’t a luxury. It’s your leadership advantage.

Video Debrief Zone

Use this space to capture key ideas, “aha” moments, and powerful quotes from Melissa’s coaching in the Lesson 3 videos.

My “Why” (Purpose):

My “Where” (Vision):

My “How” (Mission):

The 90-Day Way:

LESSON 3 · ABOUT 65 MINUTES OF REPS THIS WEEK

A.R.A.W. Conditioning Drills

This is where you start putting in the reps.

Drill 3.1	CORE REP · START HERE Architect Your Purpose Statement Alignment	20 min	Page 27 ›
Drill 3.2	EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME Architect Your Vision Statement Alignment	20 min	Page 30 ›
Drill 3.3	EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME Architect Your Mission Statement Agility	15 min	Page 33 ›
Scorecard	EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME Part 1, your M.V.P. foundation All four · in your Scorecard	10 min	Page 35 ›

Fill it in on screen. Type straight into the grey boxes and tick the boxes that apply. Save the file to keep your answers.

Or on paper. Print the pages and write by hand.

Then get feedback. Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed.

Drill 3.1 | Core rep · start here | About 20 minutes

Architect Your Purpose Statement (Your “Why”)

- Purpose isn’t a statement. It’s a leadership anchor and a decision filter.
- Your purpose is the authentic engine behind why you are here. It’s not about feeling good; it’s about realizing the original intention for your life and leadership that fuels forward motion when things get hard. It’s the reason people trust you, follow you, and stay with you in high-stakes moments.

Common Misunderstanding of Purpose → Athleadership Shift

Most People Think...		Athleaders Know...
“It’s a personal passion.”	→	“It’s a personal promise with public impact.”
“It’s static and poetic.”	→	“It’s functional and active. It evolves.”
“It’s about what I love.”	→	“It’s about what I refuse to ignore.”
“It’s good to know.”	→	“It’s essential to lead.”

Draft it using your Lesson 2 notes. It only has to be true, so don’t wait for perfect.

The Drafting Process

Step 1

Gather Your Raw Materials (Your Inner Blueprint)

To build your purpose, you first need to gather the raw materials. Use the prompts below to brainstorm. Don’t censor yourself, just write.

- Who am I at my core, beyond my job title?
- How do I aspire to serve or impact others (my Player-Coach, my team, my family, my community)?
- What is the unique legacy I want to leave?
- If my job ended today, what would still drive me to serve?
- What do others say I ignite in them?

My Notes

Step 2

Understand the Framework

Now, we will use a specific framework to structure your purpose statement. This framework connects your core action to its impact across every arena of your life.

The Framework →

I exist to [Core Action/Impact] by [Your Method or Mindset] so that [Result in Others: in Work, in Life, and in Legacy].

Example

Full Statement: I exist to bring order to chaos by leading with calm and clarity, so that others can rise with confidence: as a father who models peace under pressure, in my leadership through complex change, and by leaving behind a legacy of grounded, values-based decision-making.

This purpose in action across life's arenas:

- Family: I teach my children how to face challenges without losing themselves.
- Leadership: I simplify the storm so my team can execute with focus.
- Legacy: I am remembered as the person who brought stability when others panicked.

Step 3

Write Your First Draft

Using your brainstorming notes and the framework above, write the first draft of your purpose statement and its application in your life's arenas.

My Purpose is:

I exist to _____

by _____

so that _____

Family (Your closest relationships):

Leadership (Your team/colleagues):

Legacy (Your long-term impact):

Step 4

Refine and Align

A truly authentic purpose takes time. Be prepared to write 5, 10, or even 25 drafts. Use these prompts to refine your work:

- Review it: Does it align with your core values? Does it feel true to you?
- Keep it Concise: Can you make your main statement even more powerful and clear?
- Read it Aloud: Does it energize you? It should feel like fuel.
- Align with Your Player-Coach: How would sharing this purpose with your Player-Coach help them understand what truly motivates you and where to find opportunities for your growth and development?

My Notes

Drill 3.2 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 20 minutes

Architect Your Vision Statement (Your "Where")

What is a Best-in-Class Vision?

Vision is a vivid destination of where you aspire for your personal and professional leadership to go. It's not just dreaming big; it is defining success on your terms with specificity. A powerful vision not only motivates you to keep moving forward, but it also inspires your team, your family, and others to keep moving ahead when the way is uncertain.

A best-in-class vision statement is:

- Vivid: It creates a clear, detailed picture in your mind.
- Visible: You can see it, feel it, and almost touch it.
- Real: It feels authentic and possible, even if it's a stretch.

Common Misunderstanding of Vision → Athleadership Shift

Most People Think...		Athleaders Know...
"It's a vague future hope."	→	"It's a tangible, measurable destination."
"It's only about work success."	→	"It integrates life, legacy, and performance."
"It's static."	→	"It evolves with clarity and scale."

The Drafting Process

Step 1

Gather Your Raw Materials

Go back to the intention you set in Lesson 1 and use your reflections from Lesson 2 to answer the prompts below. These answers will form the building blocks of your vision.

✎ Fast forward 5 years. What does ultimate success look like for you professionally? (What is your role? What are you known for? What impact are you having?)

- In that same 5-year future, what does success personally look like for you? (Consider your health, relationships, learning, and overall wellbeing.)

- What does it feel like to be in that future? What emotions come up?

- What are people saying about your impact?

- What in your future vision energizes you when current circumstances don’t?

Step 2

Draft Your Vision Statement

Using your answers, draft a statement that captures the essence of your future self. Write it as if it’s already happened.

Example

- In 5 years, I am leading a cross-functional team known for execution under pressure, mentoring rising leaders, and protecting time for family, health, and impact beyond work.
- I’m a trusted voice in strategic transformation, known for helping companies navigate disruption while staying rooted in integrity and people-first leadership.
- In 3 years, I’ve built a platform that develops young athletes into confident leaders: on the field, in the boardroom, and in their communities.

My Vision is:

Alignment in action: Connecting Your “Where”

How does your professional vision align with the known goals of your team and the wider organization? What conversation could you have with your Player-Coach to share this vision and discuss developmental opportunities that would support it?

Bonus Drill: Make it Visible

A vision you can see is one you can achieve. Create a Vision Board (digital or physical) to bring your statement to life with images, quotes, and words that represent your future.

Take it up a level: put your M.V.P. in AI and gain a more vivid picture for where your life can go!

My Notes:

Drill 3.3 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 15 minutes

Architect Your Mission Statement (Your "How")

What is a Best-in-Class Mission?

A Mission Statement is designed to define a task or assignment. It's not aspirational; it's directional. It's the daily behavior that makes your purpose real and moves you toward your vision. Your mission shapes your activities, resources, and time, creating alignment in your career. It can and should evolve, but it should always reflect where you are today.

A best-in-class Mission defines:

- Who you are
- How you live
- The skills you bring
- The results you want to achieve

The Drafting Process

Step 1

Understand the Core Components (The Formula)

Your mission statement is built from four key parts that clarify your action and impact.

The Formula →

I will [ACTION] for [AUDIENCE] by [FOCUS AREA] to [RESULT].

Action

How you move (e.g., Build, Coach, Challenge, Protect, Translate, Activate)

Audience

Who you're responsible for (e.g., My team, rising leaders, my industry, my clients)

Focus Area

Your method or superpower (e.g., Simplifying complexity, connecting vision to action, translating data into stories)

Result

The change you drive (e.g., High performance, strategic momentum, a culture of confidence)

Step 2

Review Examples

- "I will build clarity for my team by simplifying complexity to create a culture of confidence, execution, and trust under pressure."
- "I will empower decision-makers by connecting the dots between vision and action to drive strategic momentum through people and performance."
- "I will coach high-potential performers by translating the mindset of elite sport into leadership habits that win in life and business."

My notes

Step 3

Draft Your Mission Statement

Use the formula and examples to architect your mission. First, fill in the blanks, then combine them into a full statement.

ACTION: _____

AUDIENCE: _____

FOCUS AREA: _____

RESULT: _____

My Mission is:

Read it out loud, and change any word that doesn't sound like you.

Alignment in action: Connecting Your "How"

Review your mission. How does this 'how' provide clarity to your team and set clear expectations for the work you will prioritize together?

Scorecard | Extra rep, if you have time | About 10 minutes

The System for Momentum: The 90-Day Way

You now have the first draft of your M.V.P. Blueprint. This is your strategic compass and your alignment tool. The 90-Day Way Scorecard is the vehicle that will move you forward.

Your Task:

- [ ] Review your M.V.P. Blueprint drafts (Purpose, Vision, Mission) that you just completed.
- [ ] Open your 90-Day Way Scorecard.
- [ ] Complete Part 1: M.V.P. Foundation. Transfer your drafted Purpose, Vision, and Mission statements into the Scorecard. Also, add the core Values you identified in Lesson 2.

This is a critical step in activating your blueprint. In the next lessons, we will use this foundation to build out your actionable goals within the Scorecard.

You won't rise to the level of your potential. You fall to the strength of your conditioning.

Locker Room Reflection

After drafting your M.V.P. Blueprint, what is the most clarifying insight you've had about your path forward, and how do you think it will positively impact your relationship with your Player-Coach or team?

Quick self-check

Just for you. Your Pulse Check, the one that tracks your season, is in the course.

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
I use or will use my M.V.P. as a decision filter in moments of pressure.	○	○	○	○	○
My current role allows me to live my purpose.	○	○	○	○	○
My M.V.P. draft gives my Player-Coach a clearer picture of my career aspirations.	○	○	○	○	○
I feel more energized because I'm living in alignment with my M.V.P.	○	○	○	○	○

Based upon your answers, how can you leverage your 90-Day Way to make adjustments?

Get feedback

Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed: your Player-Coach, a peer, someone on your team.

Who I asked: _____

What they said, and what I'll keep doing:

Back in the course: your Athleader Pro Huddle with LaChina Robinson, then your Pulse Check.

THE ATHLEADER PLAYBOOK

Lesson 4

Activate Your M.V.P. & Condition A.R.A.W.

About 55 minutes of reps this week. Your core rep, Drill 4.1, takes about 15.

M.V.P. Accelerator™

POWERED BY ATHLEADERSHIP ARENA™

LESSON 4

Pre-Game Huddle: Your Focus for Lesson 4

Welcome to the game. You've done the strategic work to create your M.V.P. Blueprint. Now, we move from the strategy session to the playing field. This lesson is about how to condition your ability to execute with purpose when faced with the inevitable resistance and unpredictability of the real world.

This is where you build the core muscles of an Athleader: Resilience and Agility. The drills in this section are designed to be your "weight training." They will challenge you, strengthen your core, and prepare you to lead with confidence when it matters most.

"The plan is not the victory. The victory is in the execution."

Primary A.R.A.W. Focus:

Resilience

Developing the mental and emotional strength to absorb pressure, embrace resistance, and stay focused on your purpose.

Agility

Building the capacity to adapt your plan, pivot intelligently, and make decisive adjustments without losing momentum.

Your Objectives for this Lesson:

- Practice using your M.V.P. Blueprint as a real-time decision-making filter.
- Identify and create a strategy to manage your "internal resistance" (the inner critic).
- Learn and apply the "reframing" technique to handle external resistance.
- "Stress-test" your 90-Day Way goals to build proactive agility.

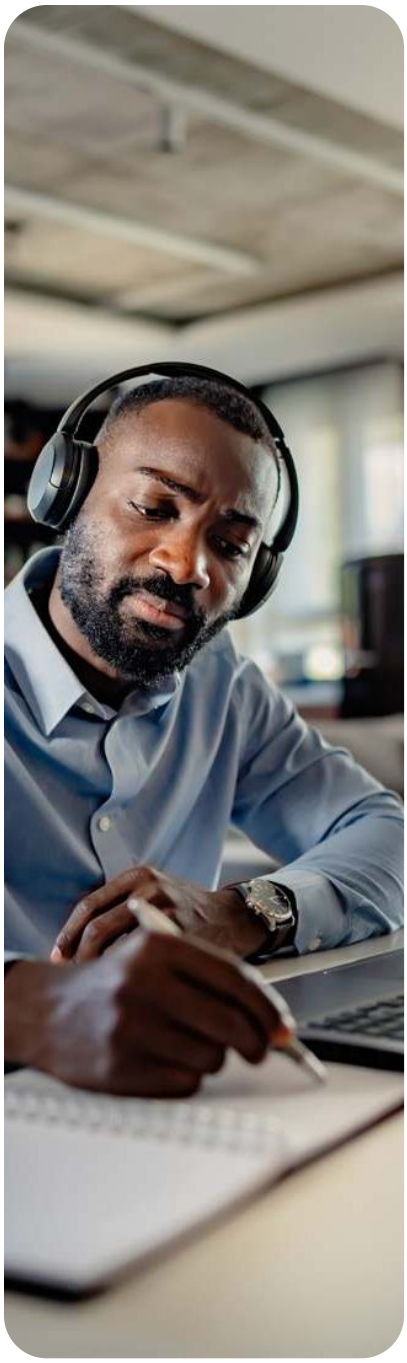

START HERE

Drill 4.1: The M.V.P. Decision Filter

Your core rep this week, about 15 minutes.

Page 42 ›

Boundaries aren’t walls. They’re bridges to the life you’re meant to lead.

Video Debrief Zone

Use this space to capture key ideas and “aha” moments from Melissa’s coaching in the Lesson 4 videos.

Activating My M.V.P.:

Conditioning Resilience (Internal & External):

Conditioning Agility (The Pivot):

LESSON 4 · ABOUT 55 MINUTES OF REPS THIS WEEK

A.R.A.W. Conditioning Drills

This is where you start putting in the reps.

Drill 4.1

CORE REP · START HERE

The M.V.P. Decision Filter

Alignment

15 min

Page 42 ›

Drill 4.2

EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME

Taming Your Inner Critic

Resilience

10 min

Page 44 ›

Drill 4.3

EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME

The Reframe

Resilience

10 min

Page 45 ›

Drill 4.4

EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME

Stress-Test Your 90-Day Way Goals

Agility

20 min

Page 46 ›

Fill it in on screen. Type straight into the grey boxes and tick the boxes that apply. Save the file to keep your answers.

Or on paper. Print the pages and write by hand.

Then get feedback. Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed.

Drill 4.1 | Core rep · start here | About 15 minutes

The M.V.P. Decision Filter (Scenario)

In the video, Melissa shared the story of “Anna,” who used her M.V.P. to make a strategic decision. Now it’s your turn. Read the scenario below and use your own M.V.P. Blueprint to work through it.

The Scenario

You’ve just been invited to lead a new, high-visibility task force to solve a sudden company-wide operational issue. It’s a great opportunity for exposure to senior leadership. However, accepting will require you to work late for the next month, forcing you to miss family dinners and cancel the personal development course you committed to (which aligns with one of your 90-Day Way goals).

Run it through your M.V.P. filter. Refer back to your drafted Purpose, Vision, and Mission statements.

Purpose Alignment

Does saying ‘yes’ to this task force align with your core Purpose? Why or why not?

Vision Alignment

Does this move you closer to or further away from the 5-year Vision you defined for yourself? In what way?

Mission Alignment

Does this work fit within your defined Mission? Is this the ‘how’ you want to be spending your time and energy?

Propose a “Powerful Yes” (or a Confident “No”)

Based on your analysis, how would you respond? Draft an answer that is true to your M.V.P. It could be a ‘yes, but…’, a ‘no, because…’, or a ‘not me, but…’ that delegates or proposes an alternative solution (like Anna did).

Your turn, for real

Now run one real request from your week through the same four questions.

The request: _____

My answer, true to my M.V.P.:

Deeper Activation

Inner Voice & Communication

How might your inner critic (from Drill 4.2) affect how you communicate your decision in this scenario? How can you use your purpose as a counter-statement?

Wellbeing & Burnout

Journal for a few minutes on this question: How does making a decision that is aligned with your M.V.P. (like the one you just drafted) actively prevent burnout, even if it's a difficult choice?

Stakeholder Impact

Who are the key stakeholders (team, Player-Coach, family) affected by your decision? How does filtering the decision through your M.V.P. help you lead them more effectively through the outcome?

Drill 4.2 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 10 minutes

Taming Your Inner Critic

Internal resistance is often the biggest hurdle. Giving a name to that voice of self-doubt separates it from your true, powerful self.

Name Your Inner Critic:

What do you call that nagging voice of fear or doubt? (e.g., “The Perfectionist,” “The Cautious Committee,” “The Worrier”).

My Inner Critic’s Name: _____

What does it usually say? (e.g., “You’re not ready for this.” “What if you fail?” “Don’t rock the boat.”)

Write the exact sentence.

Arm Yourself with a Counter-Statement:

Write a powerful, purpose-driven statement you can use to respond to your inner critic when it appears. This should be rooted in your M.V.P.

My Counter-Statement:

Example

If the critic says “You’re not experienced enough,” your counter-statement could be, “My mission is to build innovative solutions, and that requires taking on new challenges. I am ready to learn.”

Drill 4.3 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 10 minutes

The Reframe (Practice)

External resistance is an opportunity. Practice the mental shift from “obstacle” to “opportunity” with the reframing technique.

Identify a recent moment of external resistance you faced. (e.g., A colleague was skeptical of your idea, you were told ‘no’ on a budget request, a project timeline was suddenly changed).

The Resistance I Faced:

What was your initial, instinctive reaction or thought? (“This will never work.” “They don’t support me.” “This is a disaster.”)

Now, reframe it. How could this “obstacle” actually be an “opportunity”?

My Reframe:

Try it as a “not yet,” with the question you’ll ask next.

Example

“My colleague’s skepticism is an opportunity to pressure-test my idea and make my business case even stronger” or “This ‘no’ on the budget is an opportunity to find a more creative, low-cost solution that could be even more impressive.”

Drill 4.4 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 20 minutes

Stress-Testing Your 90-Day Way Goals

Proactive agility is built by anticipating challenges. Look at the goals you set in your 90-Day Way Scorecard, or any goal you're working toward right now.

Select one important goal. Now, ask these three "stress-test" questions:

The Goal: _____

Where is this plan most likely to break? What is the single weakest link?

What is the biggest assumption I am making for this goal to succeed? (e.g., "I'm assuming I'll have 5 hours a week," or "I'm assuming stakeholder X will be supportive.")

If that assumption proves false, what is my pivot plan? (What is Plan B?)

My Notes:

The Final Rep: Align Your Pivot Plan

An Athleader doesn't just create a Plan B in isolation; they align it with key partners. Sharing your pivot plan isn't just about informing others; it's about gaining valuable perspective and strengthening your strategy before you need it.

Your Task: Schedule a brief conversation with your Player-Coach or a trusted peer. In that conversation:

- [ ] Share the goal you've stress-tested.
- [ ] Explain the potential point of failure you identified.
- [ ] Present your proposed pivot plan.
- [ ] Ask for their feedback: "What am I missing? How could this pivot plan be even stronger?"

Who I'll talk to: _____ When: _____

✎ What they said, and what I'll change:

Locker Room Reflection

After completing the drills for this lesson, what is the biggest shift in your mindset regarding how you will approach challenges and execute your plans moving forward?

Quick self-check

Just for you. Your Pulse Check, the one that tracks your season, is in the course.

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
When faced with an unexpected obstacle this week, my first instinct was to reframe it as an opportunity.	○	○	○	○	○
I feel confident in my ability to pivot from my plan without losing sight of my main goal.	○	○	○	○	○

What is one specific action you can take next week to proactively build your agility?

Get feedback

Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed: your Player-Coach, a peer, someone on your team.

Who I asked: _____

What they said, and what I'll keep doing:

Back in the course: your Athleader Pro Huddle with Sagar Pandya, then your Pulse Check.

THE ATHLEADER PLAYBOOK

Lesson 5

Lead the 90-Day Way

Sustain & Optimize

About 95 minutes of reps this week. Your core rep, Drill 5.2, takes about 30.

M.V.P. Accelerator™

POWERED BY ATHLEADERSHIP ARENA™

LESSON 5

Pre-Game Huddle: Your Focus for Lesson 5

Welcome to the lesson where all your foundational work (your M.V.P. Blueprint, your A.R.A.W. awareness) gets translated into a powerful, executable plan. This is where strategy meets the pavement. You have the 'why' and the 'where'; the 90-Day Way is the 'how.'

The drills in this lesson are the most practical yet. They are designed to move you from reflection to structured action, giving you the clarity and momentum needed to make significant progress in a single "season."

"What separates the 8% who succeed? It's not just about setting goals. It's about having a system to achieve them consistently."

Primary A.R.A.W. Focus:

Alignment

Ensuring your goals and actions are in perfect harmony with your M.V.P. Blueprint.

Wellbeing

Building a sustainable plan includes celebration and prevents burnout by focusing on what truly matters.

Your Objectives for this Lesson:

- Identify the essential prerequisites ("Elements of Success") required to achieve your vision.
- Conduct an honest gap analysis between your current state and your required state.
- Transform your most critical gaps into 2-3 powerful SMART goals.
- Learn how to assess your goals against the A.R.A.W. pillars.
- Build out your first comprehensive 90-Day Way plan using the 90-Day Way Scorecard.

As you build your plan, we want you to amplify its impact by considering your key relationships. Ask yourself throughout this lesson:

- Who will benefit if I achieve this goal?
- Who might need to be brought along with me on this journey?

START HERE

Drill 5.2: Gap Analysis & SMART Goal Creation

Your core rep this week, about 30 minutes.

Page 55 ›

Video Debrief Zone

Use this space to capture key ideas and “aha” moments from Melissa’s coaching in the Lesson 5 videos.

Elements of Success (My Prerequisites):

Gap Analysis & SMART Goals:

Building My 90-Day Action Plan:

Goals aren’t just what you aim for. They’re who you become on the way there.

LESSON 5 · ABOUT 95 MINUTES OF REPS THIS WEEK

A.R.A.W. Conditioning Drills

This is where you start putting in the reps.

Drill 5.1

EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME

The Elements of Success

Alignment

20 min

Page 54 ›

Drill 5.2

CORE REP · START HERE

Gap Analysis & SMART Goal Creation

Alignment

30 min

Page 55 ›

Drill 5.3

EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME

Build Your 90-Day Action Plan

Wellbeing · in your Scorecard, Part 3

30 min

Page 57 ›

Scorecard

EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME

Part 4, your weekly check-in

All four · every week from now on

15 min

Page 57 ›

Fill it in on screen. Type straight into the grey boxes and tick the boxes that apply. Save the file to keep your answers.

Or on paper. Print the pages and write by hand.

Then get feedback. Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed.

Drill 5.1 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 20 minutes

The Elements of Success (Your Prerequisite Check)

Before building your plan, you need to know what success requires. Based on the career path and vision you've defined, what are the non-negotiable prerequisites required?

Instructions: For each category below, brainstorm what is required to achieve your vision, from you and from the people around you. Don't assess yourself yet; just list the requirements.

Mindset

e.g., Confidence to lead a larger team, resilience to handle executive-level pressure...

Experience

e.g., P&L management experience, leading a cross-functional team...

Motivation & Energy

e.g., Sustainable drive for a multi-year project...

Knowledge/Skills

e.g., Deep knowledge of market trends, advanced data analysis skills...

Network

e.g., Relationships with senior-level leaders, a strong mentor...

Resources (Time, Financial, etc.)

e.g., 10 hours per week for study, budget for a course...

Worksheet: Current Role & Team Alignment

Review the prerequisites you listed above. How aligned are these goals with the current needs of your role and the objectives of your team? Where is there synergy? Where might there be tension?

Drill 5.2 | Core rep · start here | About 30 minutes

Gap Analysis & SMART Goal Creation

Now, assess yourself against the prerequisites you just listed. Where are you strong, and where are the most critical gaps? These gaps become your goals.

Skipped Drill 5.1? Start by listing what your vision needs from you, then pick the two or three gaps that matter most.

Transform Gaps into SMART Goals:

1. Review your list from Drill 5.1.
2. Identify the top 2-3 most critical gaps that are holding you back right now.
3. Transform each gap into a powerful SMART goal using the template.

Template →

Within [Time-bound], I will [Specific Action] so that I can [Measurable Outcome], which is [Relevant] to my vision of [Your Vision] and is [Attainable] with my current resources.

Example

Gap: Lack of public speaking experience.

SMART Goal: "Within the next 90 days, I will complete a public speaking course and deliver at least two presentations to internal teams, so that I can receive measurable feedback on my performance, which is relevant to my vision of becoming a recognized thought leader and is attainable with my current professional development budget."

My Top 3 Critical Gaps:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

My SMART Goal #1:

My SMART Goal #2:

My SMART Goal #3:

Reflection & Prioritization:

Of the SMART goals you just drafted, which one, if achieved, would best equip you to lead through change? Choose it.

○ Goal #1 ○ Goal #2 ○ Goal #3

Considering the time and energy required, what time are you willing to commit toward this primary goal each week?

Each week: _____

How to Assess Your Core 4 A.R.A.W. Focus

Before you build your action plan, you need to decide which A.R.A.W. pillar each goal primarily conditions. This helps you be intentional about your growth. Use these questions to guide you:

Does this goal build my...

- Agility? (My ability to adapt, learn, and respond to change.)
- Resilience? (My ability to manage pressure, setbacks, and my energy.)
- Alignment? (My ability to connect my actions to my purpose and create clarity for others.)
- Wellbeing? (My ability to maintain health, focus, and sustainability.)

Drill 5.3 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 30 minutes

Build Your 90-Day Action Plan

This is the final step: building your plan in your 90-Day Way Scorecard.

Instructions:

- ☐ Open your 90-Day Way Scorecard.
- ☐ Transfer your 2-3 SMART Goals into Part 3: Game Plan.
- ☐ For EACH goal, complete the remaining columns by brainstorming the specific actions and details needed.

Action Plan Checklist (for each goal):

For each goal in Part 3	Goal #1	Goal #2	Goal #3
Core 4 Pillar Focus: Using the guide above, which A.R.A.W. muscle does this goal primarily condition?	☐	☐	☐
Daily/Weekly Actions: (e.g., Not "network more," but "Reach out to 2 people on LinkedIn per week.")	☐	☐	☐
Resources Needed: (e.g., Time block in calendar, intro from my Player-Coach...)	☐	☐	☐
Deadline: The specific date this SMART goal will be achieved.	☐	☐	☐
Accountability: Who will you share this goal with? Name them.	☐	☐	☐
Celebration: How will you reward yourself for achieving this goal?	☐	☐	☐

Scorecard Part 4: your weekly check-in

Fifteen minutes, every week from now on: open Part 4 of your Scorecard, check each goal, and note what you'll adjust.

My check-in day: _____ Time: _____

☐ I've done my first weekly check-in.

Locker Room Reflection

After building your 90-Day Plan, what is the biggest feeling you have (e.g., clarity, excitement, nervousness)? What does that feeling tell you about your readiness to execute?

Quick self-check

Just for you. Your Pulse Check, the one that tracks your season, is in the course.

	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
My 90-Day Plan feels directly connected to my M.V.P. Blueprint.	○	○	○	○	○
I have a clear understanding of how my 90-Day goals will condition my Agility, Resilience, Alignment, and Wellbeing.	○	○	○	○	○

Get feedback

Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed: your Player-Coach, a peer, someone on your team.

Who I asked: _____

What they said, and what I'll keep doing:

Back in the course: your Athleader Pro Huddle with Ryall Graber, then your Pulse Check.

THE ATHLEADER PLAYBOOK

Lesson 6

Final Whistle & Victory Lap

About 70 minutes this week, with your post-assessment. Your core rep, Drill 6.1, takes about 20.

M.V.P. Accelerator™

POWERED BY ATHLEADERSHIP ARENA™

LESSON 6

Pre-Game Huddle: Your Focus for Lesson 6

Congratulations, Athleader. You have completed your Championship Season. You did the work, you faced the challenges, and you have emerged stronger and more aligned. This final section of your Playbook is dedicated to two critical actions of every champion: celebrating the victory and strategically planning for the future.

Use these final drills to lock in your learnings so they become a permanent part of your leadership DNA, and to build the bridge from this season's success to the next.

"This is not the finish line. It's the beginning of a lifestyle."

Primary A.R.A.W. Focus:

Full Integration

Synthesizing all four pillars (Agility, Resilience, Alignment, and Wellbeing) into a cohesive leadership approach.

Your Objectives for this Lesson:

- Conduct a "Post-Season Review" to identify and celebrate your key breakthroughs across the A.R.A.W. framework.
- Solidify the practice of "Continuous Conditioning" as a core leadership habit.
- Define a clear focus for your next 90-Day Season.
- Complete your final assessments.

START HERE

Drill 6.1: Your Post-Season Review

Your core rep this week, about 20 minutes.

Page 63 ›

Video Debrief Zone

Use this space to capture your final insights from Melissa's coaching in the Lesson 6 videos.

Reviewing My "Championship Season":

The Power of Continuous Conditioning:

My Leadership Legacy:

LESSON 6 · ABOUT 70 MINUTES OF REPS THIS WEEK

A.R.A.W. Conditioning Drills

This is where you start putting in the reps.

Drill 6.1	CORE REP · START HERE Your Post-Season Review All four	20 min	Page 63 ›
Drill 6.2	EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME Your Commitment to Continuous Conditioning All four	15 min	Page 64 ›
Scorecard	EXTRA REP, IF YOU HAVE TIME Part 6, assessment and reset All four · in your Scorecard	20 min	Page 64 ›
Assessment	REQUIRED · AT THE END OF THIS LESSON Your post-assessment All four · in the course	15 min	Page 65 ›

Fill it in on screen. Type straight into the grey boxes and tick the boxes that apply. Save the file to keep your answers.

Or on paper. Print the pages and write by hand.

Then get feedback. Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed.

Drill 6.1 | Core rep · start here | About 20 minutes

Your Post-Season Review (Celebrating Your Wins)

Reviewing your game tape is how you encode your success. Look back over this season and your completed 90-Day Way Scorecard. Be specific and give yourself credit for the growth you've achieved.

My Biggest AGILITY Win

Describe a specific moment you successfully pivoted, adapted to change, or made a quick, effective decision.

My Biggest ALIGNMENT Breakthrough

Describe a key decision you made that was in perfect alignment with your M.V.P., or a conversation that created powerful clarity.

My Biggest RESILIENCE Win

Describe a moment you faced resistance or a setback and successfully reframed it or bounced back stronger.

My Biggest WELLBEING Improvement

Describe a new habit or boundary you implemented that had the most significant positive impact on your energy and focus.

Your Core 4, then and now

Rate yourself again, 1 (Needs Significant Conditioning) to 5 (Currently a Key Strength), next to your Lesson 1 baseline from Drill 1.2.

Pillar	Lesson 1 baseline					Now, at the end of the season
Agility	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5
Resilience	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5
Alignment	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5
Wellbeing	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5	○ 1	○ 2	○ 3	○ 4	○ 5

Drill 6.2 | Extra rep, if you have time | About 15 minutes

Your Commitment to Continuous Conditioning

Athleadership is a lifestyle, not a single event. The tools you've gained are most powerful when used consistently.

The Living M.V.P. Blueprint

Your M.V.P. is designed to evolve with you. Schedule a "check-in" on your calendar 6 months from today to review your Purpose, Vision, and Mission statements.

Action: I will schedule a 1-hour "M.V.P. Review" on my calendar for:

Date, 6 months from now: _____ ☐ Done

The 90-Day Way Rhythm

The end of one season is the start of the next. The 90-Day Way is a cyclical system for perpetual growth. Your final task in your 90-Day Way Scorecard is to complete the last section.

Action: Open your Scorecard now and complete Part 6: 90-Day Assessment and Reset. This is where you will set the stage for your next season. ☐ Done

Locker Room Reflection: Your Championship Takeaway

Looking back on this entire M.V.P. Accelerator journey, what is the single most valuable or transformative lesson you will carry forward?

FINAL STEPS

Your “Next Play”

You’ve done the work. Now it’s time to formalize your completion.

- [ ] Finalize Your 90-Day Way Scorecard: Ensure you have completed Part 6 in your Scorecard. This is your handoff from this season to the next.
- [ ] Complete the Post-Course Assessment: Your feedback is invaluable. You’ll find it at the end of Lesson 6 in the course. It helps us make this experience even more powerful for the community of Athleaders who will follow you.
- [ ] Share Your Accomplishments and be Recognized on the Wall of Fame: Reflect back to where you started. What were your initial personal and professional goals? What were your intentions? How did you grow in unexpected ways and what did you achieve? Define success on your terms and share your significant outcome.

My notes

Draft your few lines for the Wall of Fame here.

Get feedback

Run your core rep, then ask one person how it landed: your Player-Coach, a peer, someone on your team.

Who I asked: _____

What they said, and what I’ll keep doing:

Thank you for your commitment, your courage, and your leadership. You are conditioned to win. This is just the beginning. Go forward and lead from your core. You've got this!

Melissa Dawn Simkins
Founder, Athleadership, and Head Coach